THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA COLLEGE OF MEDICINE

FAMILY MEDICINE RESIDENCY AT SOUTH CAMPUS

“We welcome aspiring family physicians into a residency marked by excellence at all levels - achieving new heights of teaching, scholarly work, mentorship, and interprofessionalism as we care for vulnerable populations in under-resourced areas of Arizona.”

General Residency Information

- 8 residents/year. ACGME accredited
- Based at BUMC South in Tucson, AZ
- University based program
- 150 bed community based hospital
- Family Medicine run inpatient service
- Diverse demographic:
  - Mexican citizens and Native Americans
  - Refugees from around the world

Rural Rotations

- USA/Mexico border health
- Indian health services
- Global health opportunities
- Alaskan/Canadian health opportunities
- Rural Arizona:
  - Nogales, Safford, Polacca, Fort Defiance, Whiteriver, Tuba City, Payson, Casa Grande
- Family Medicine - 2 rotations
- Obstetrics - 1 rotation
- Emergency Medicine - 1 rotation

Distinction Tracks

- Global health track
  - University based global health curriculum
  - Journal clubs and conferences
  - 8 week international elective
- Integrative medicine - online curriculum
- Spanish fluency & healthcare disparity track
  - 2 year multidisciplinary track
  - Minimum Spanish proficiency required

Community Medicine

- Mobile health for the underserved:
  - Offers care where little or none is available
  - Serves approximately 2,400 pt/year
  - Prenatal and obstetrics for uninsured women
- High school football team physician opportunities
- Walk with a Doc
- Health fairs
- Annual free sports physicals for school district

Our program provides an opportunity for physicians to master the broad skill set needed for practice in multiple settings, especially underserved and rural areas.